

Dear Friends,

God continues to bless the ministry of the National Memorial for the Unborn. More than 2,000 brass plates now adorn the granite wall in remembrance of children from all over the US, Russia, and Canada. Our mission is to bring hope and healing to families affected by the tragedy of abortion, and the unfortunate loss of a child due to miscarriage.

OUR MINISTRY OUTREACH

- Over 900 visitors from US, Russia, Canada, and South Africa in 2007 visited the Wall
- Increasing number of youth groups from middle school through college
- Over 40 private memorial services held for parents/relatives of aborted children
- At least 3 babies saved from abortion because of the Wall's impact

GROWTH! -- NEW AFFILIATES ADDED

- North Texas Memorial for the Unborn, Greenville, TX
- Hearts of Hope, First Baptist Church, Orlando, FL
- Hearts of Remembrance, Johnson County, IN
- AND in the planning stages Kentucky and Virginia

A NEW MINISTRY INITIATIVE IS HAPPENING!

- We now offer engraved brick pavers in the garden to honor miscarried and stillborn children!

OUR NEW VISION (We're excited!)

- Plans are underway to develop a "Virtual Wall" on the Worldwide Web!

PLEASE HELP!

- Ministry, outreach, and operating expenses are needed
- Maintenance, repairs, and upkeep for the porch and gardens

If you have honored a child with a brass plate on the Wall (or a brick paver in the gardens), would you prayerfully consider a financial gift to support the Memorial? We desperately need it for upkeep and for reaching out to those in need of healing. If you are unable to help, PLEASE consider lifting special prayers for our efforts.

If God has blessed you financially this year, would you consider making a special end-of-year tax-deductible donation? Your gift of any amount will be much appreciated!

The Wall is open 24/7 for your convenience. Please visit! If you would like a personal tour, or have questions, simply call Carol Martin at (423) 899-1677 or 1-800-505-5565.

In His faithful service,

The Board of Directors
